

TEXTIELFESTIVAL.

The opener of the Textile Festival is in the hands of Music For Installations. Friday 25th of September at 21.00 at the Ververij in Ronse. This evening will be a mix of soundscapes and ambient music, with some reflections to the cosmic music from my other project

Lounasan

. Everybody will be invited to ly down.

Niek Cornil will translate the sound into live video. Niek is able to give the right image to the music, thus making the whole presentation even more stronger. Close your eyes and float on the weirdness. Free entrance!
